Protecting Families & Businesses Through All of Life's Journeys

COVID-19

Stressed? We get it. We understand you are being flooded with more information than you can digest and are concerned about the unknowns.

What happens if you get the virus? Who has authority to make your healthcare decisions? Who can make your college child's healthcare decisions if he/she gets sick? Do they need a power of attorney too? Who will pay your bills? Keep your business running? Will you leave behind a mess if you passed away now without a will or trust? You know the online forms don't work, but how can you meet safely with an attorney right now? Where can you find peace of mind?

We are here to help. If you have not had time to get your trust, will, or powers of attorney into place or want a refresher on how your current plan works, we will make the time to walk you through the process. We make it simple and easy. Just click below to get started.

We also want to keep you safe. Did you know you can meet with us in the comfort of your own home? We offer live meetings over the computer (as easy as clicking on a link) or phone meetings. We were built with mobility and simplicity in mind for our clients, which means we aren't scrambling to get new systems into place, we already have them. After all, planning for the unexpected is what we do every day.

Prefer an Office Visit?

Prefer an office visit? We have put into place protocols to ensure your health and the health of our team members.

We are following all CDC guidelines and thoroughly disinfecting between all office visits. We also are scheduling meetings farther apart, so you do not come into contact with any other clients during your visit in attempts to limit the community spread of the virus.

Let us help relieve some of your stress. We are here for you and we are in this together.

Stay Safe,

DID YOU KNOW?

With COVID-19 impacting more and more Americans, individuals across the country are scrambling to set up wills and end-of-life directives.

As of March 25th, trust and will companies have seen a 143% week-over-week increase in people creating their estate plans.

Lawyers across the nation are cautioning that DIY wills can be deemed invalid if they don't meet all of the legal requirements of your state.
